

Marking Guide

75th Anniversary Joint Grant for Promoting Soil Science

Document version 1.0

1. Overview

The activity proposed will be assessed according to:

- (i) Quality and originality of the proposed activity (50 points)
 - a. Rationale, clarity, and relevance of the methodology (40 points)
 - b. Originality of the activity proposed (10 points)
- (ii) Impact potential across the identified stakeholders (20 points)
- (iv) Feasibility (20 points)
- (v) Scientific/professional age of the application team (10 points).

Criteria	Weak (0-50%)	Good (50-75%)	Excellent (75-100%)
Quality (50 pts.)
Rational and methodology (40 pts.)	The rational and objectives are clear	Rational and objectives are clear. The methodology covers the objectives	Rational and objectives are clear. The methodology covers the objectives efficiently
Originality (10 pts.)	Activity showing few originality aspects	Activity showing evident originality aspects	Highly innovative activity
Impact (10 pts.)	Stakeholders identified and the impact of the activity justified	Stakeholders identified and the impact of the activity justified and is relevant	Stakeholders identified and the impact of the activity justified and highly relevant
Feasibility (20 pts.)	Activity feasible	Activity easily feasible	Activity easily feasible and back-up plans of the risky parts in place
Scientific/professional age of the applicants (10 pts.)	The team does include up to one Early Career member	The team does include many Career members	Early The activity is led by an Early Career member